

Migration Dialogues Speaker Series Fall 2009

The Binational Migration Institute (BMI) of the Dept. of Mexican American and Raza Studies, The Center for Latin American Studies, and the Chicano/Hispano Student Center Presents:

The making of 389 "Living the Border" Miles

389 Miles: "Living the Border" is a human journey, a story documented by director Luis Carlos Davis who grew up in the shadow of the Mexico-Arizona border. Here, there is no purely good side or bad, only the wall and barbed wire between neighboring countries, and the complex web of human emotions forged by survival, human trafficking, and corruption. The journey starts at Mile 1 in Douglas, Arizona where a Border Patrol agent apprehends two undocumented migrants ...

Winner of the Audience Award for Best Film, Puerto Vallarta International Film Festival 2009

Official Selection of the Guadalajara International Film Festival 2008

389 Miles "Living the Border" film screening at the Library of Congress in Washington D.C October 7, 2009

For more information, go to: <http://www.389miles.com/news.html>

Wednesday, October 7
2009

César E. Chávez Bldg
#205

Time: 4:00 – 6:30 PM

University of Arizona